THE
1958
GUSTAVIAN
GUSTAVUS ADOLPHUS COLLEGE
ST. PETER, MINNESOTA

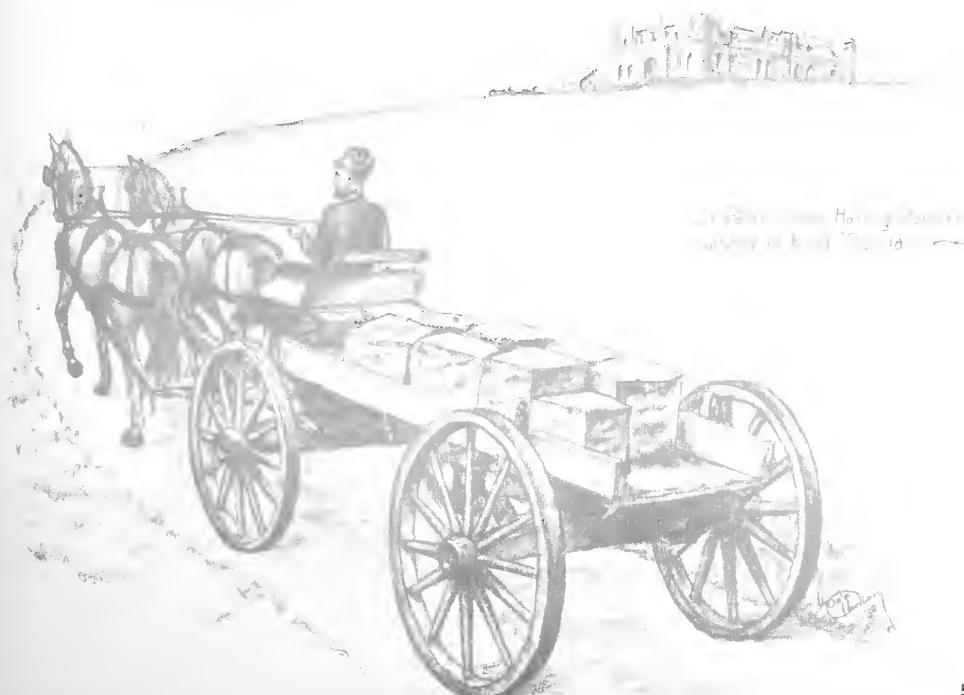

1876

OLD MAIN

FOR E W O R D

Gustavus Adolphus College was founded by Swedish Lutheran immigrants to develop intellectual and spiritual leaders for their Church. Organized as an academy in 1862 at Red Wing, it was eventually moved in 1876 to St. Peter, where a lone building on top of a high sandy hill, constructed by local farmers and tradesmen, served as class room, dormitory, chapel and social center.

1884

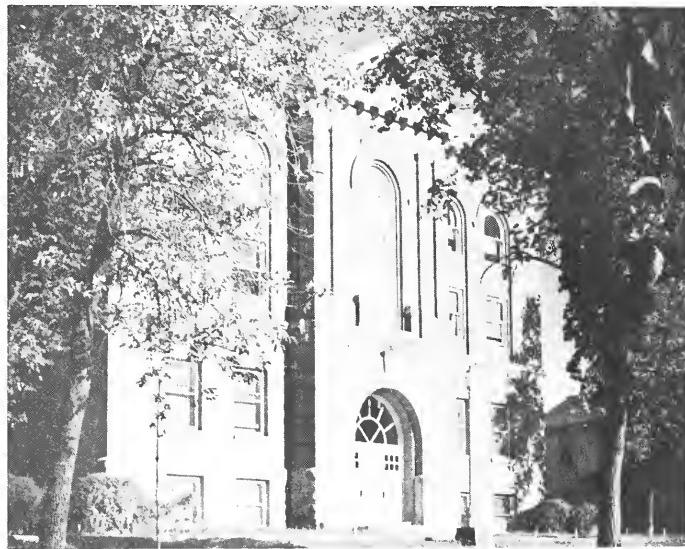

COLLEGE ROW

FOREWORD

Under the presidency of Matthias Wahlstrom, Gustavus experienced its first expansion program. 1884 marked the construction of South Hall, North Hall and the present Book Store building. The building era was completed with the erection of the old library building in 1887, the same year that the Music and Commercial Departments were added to the Curriculum. Gustavus achieved the status of a four-year liberal arts college in 1890, when the first A.B. degrees were granted.

1904

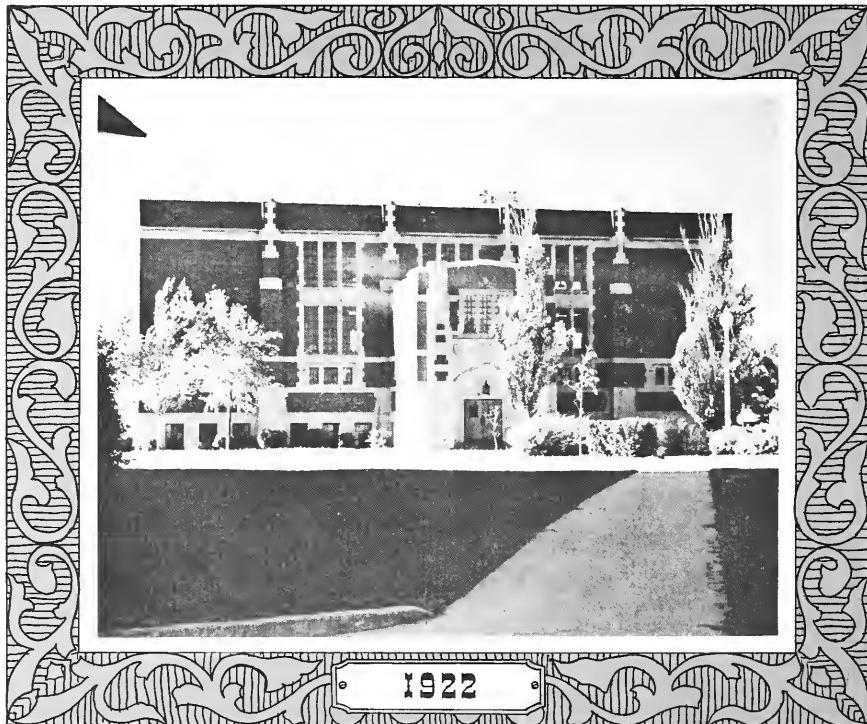

AUDITORIUM

FOREWORD

At the turn of the century, a bitter controversy arose over the question of moving Gustavus to Minneapolis. After a measure was passed in 1903 by the Minnesota Conference to move the college, local citizens promised a new building if the resolution would be repealed. Authorities agreed, and the Auditorium building was constructed in 1904. Football was banned from 1904-1917 as a "dangerous sport," while dramatic plays received approval for the first time.

1922

GYMNASIUM

FOREWORD

The effects of World War I demanded many new adjustments. College enrollment doubled. An increased emphasis upon democracy resulted in the creation of a student forum. Social fraternities gradually replaced the literary societies, and in 1920 they received the sanction of college authorities. Gustavus students, dissatisfied with the inadequate gymnasium facilities, spearheaded a campaign for the construction of a new gymnasium, erected in 1922.

FROM 1912 TO 1930 MABEL E. LARSON OF IOWA SERVED AS CARTOONIST AND ARTIST FOR GUSTAVAN YEARBOOKS. HE IS HERE SHOWN SKETCHING REV. O. ARTHUR AND DR. O. J. NISON THE TWO DRIVING FORCES IN THE 1921 ENDOWMENT FUND DRIVE.

LIBRARY

FOREWORD

Another war ushered in another new era. With the return of veterans and additional numbers of high school graduates, the enrollment doubled again and reached 1271 in 1948. A million dollar building program, including a new library and Wahlstrom Hall, completely revolutionized the campus appearance of 85 years ago. The purpose of the institution, to provide students with a Christ-centered perspective of life, remains the same.

Dr. Joshua Larson

IN MEMORIAM

With half a century of Gustavus history in the background, the 1950 "Gustavian" annual looks in retrospect at these events which have moulded the Gustavus of today.

In conjunction with this glance at the past, we pause to honor In Memoriam a "grand old man" of Gustavus, Dr. Joshua Larson, who died last fall at the age of 83.

After becoming a member of the faculty in 1931, Dr. Larson served as Swedish Department Head as well as organizer and director of the Svea Male Chorus.

It was his sparkling Christian personality that made him a great influence in the lives of his students.

With reverence, admiration and gratitude we remember Dr. Joshua Larson as a great contributor to the rich tradition of the Gustavus past.

Dr. Edgar M. Carlson

DEDICATION

Our glance at the past is associated with a glance at the future. In accordance with this theme, we take great pride in dedicating the 1950 "Gustavian" to Dr. Edgar M. Carlson, Educator, Administrator, Theologian and Scholar.

It has been his youthful progressive spirit, combined with a conservative thoughtfulness, that has brought Gustavus to the position of one of America's greatest Lutheran colleges, since he became president in 1944.

Respected by all for his profound Christian understanding, his humble spirit of cooperation, and his keen sense of leadership and responsibility, Dr. Carlson always maintains a forward look.

It is with a sense of confidence in his ability to continue his splendid program of Christian higher education that we dedicate this annual to him.

ADMINISTRATION

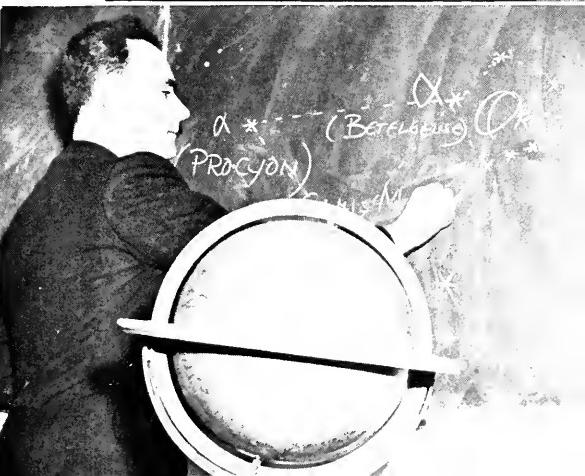

PROF-OLOGY

LEFT: "The truth shall make you free," is the inscription above the recently completed mural in the new library building. Inside a framework portraying various school activities, Mr. Don Gregory, Gustavus art instructor, painted his interpretation of Christ teaching the disciples, indicating the Gustavus principle of an educational program permeated in all phases of Christianity.

RIGHT: A hobby and antique show was one of the projects sponsored by the Faculty Women's Club to raise money for their annual scholarship award to some deserving woman student. Mrs. Marjorie Schmidt, right, displays her bottle collection to Mrs. Clifford Nutter of the St. Peter Literary Club, co-sponsors of the event.

BELOW RIGHT: One of the several DP's added to the Gustavus staff is this former Latvian instructor, at present mathematics and astronomy professor at Gustavus.

BELOW LEFT: Pastor Oscar Rolander, Missionary to Africa and at present instructor of Christianity, displays various art objects made by natives in his mission territory.

LEFT: Nationally recognized as one of America's foremost Lutheran theologians, Dr. Edgar M. Carlson is known by most students as an energetic, progressive and gracious "prexy." Shown viewing a miniature statue of King Gustavus Adolphus, college namesake, Dr. Carlson maintains a busy schedule of administrative activities and speaking engagements.

BELOW: Elected vice-president at the 1949 Lutheran Minnesota Conference meeting, Dr. Theodore Conrad, professor of Greek, maintains this position for a one-year term under present college regulations.

DEPARTMENT HEADS

ART DEPARTMENT
Mr. Donald Gregory

ATHLETIC DEPARTMENT
Mr. Lloyd Hollingsworth

The Art Department, under the direction of Mr. Don Gregory, has been rapidly expanding its program, and now offers a major to potential Rembrandts and da Vincis. A recent addition to the department is European artist Mr. Voldemars Guimmanis, a Latvian D.P.

Those interested in the fields of medicine, nursing, and medical technician work spend many hours in the Biology Department in preparation for their professions. Courses, ranging from General Zoology and Botany to Genetics and Eugenics, are taught by Dr. Charles Allegre, Department Head; Mr. Andrew Seim; and Mr. Sidney Baker.

Mr. Lloyd Hollingsworth heads the Physical Education Department, which includes the following instructors: Mr. Victor Gustafson, Miss Hildegard Hein, Mrs. Doris Sutherland, Mr. Verl Westergaard and Mr. L. H. Krough. The Department aims to meet the physical, social and emotional needs of the student through its diversified program.

Chart 2a

BIOLOGY DEPARTMENT
Dr. Charles Allegre

BUSINESS DEPARTMENT
Mr. Rufus Logan

CHEMISTRY DEPARTMENT
Dr. P. M. Skartvedt

One of the most popular departments in the Gustavus academic program, as indicated by the number of graduating seniors with majors in this field, is the department of Economics and Business Administration. Mr. Rufus Logan heads the department, which includes Mr. Richard Laube, Mr. Adolph Brandt, and Mr. Kyle Montague.

Students who are interested in the makeup of the material world and the changes it undergoes, find their questions answered by Dr. P. M. Skartvedt, Dr. Arne Langsjoen and Mr. Robert Lavine of the Chemistry Department.

All Gustavus students take 12% of their total four-year academic program in the Christianity Department. An exceptionally strong department, headed by Dr. George Hall, it offers a varied selection of courses numbering over 300. All ordained Lutheran pastors, the staff this past year consisted of Dr. George Hall, Mr. Arnold Carlson, Mr. John Darrah, Mr. Herbert Gustafson, Mr. Emery Johnson, Mr. O. E. Olman, Mr. Oscar Rolander and Dr. George Forell.

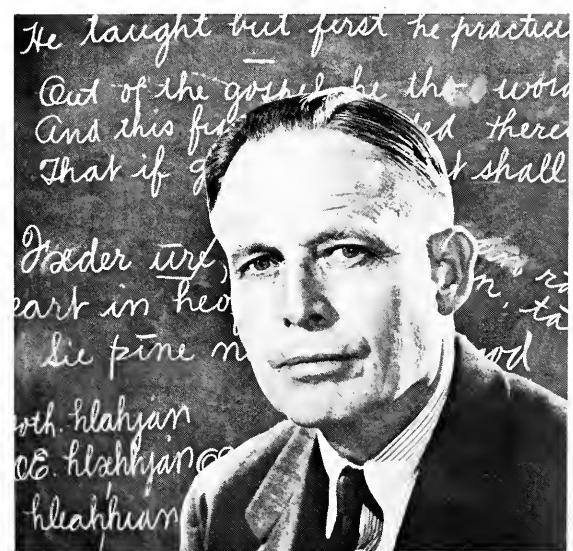

CHRISTIANITY DEPARTMENT
Dr. George F. Hall

GEOLOGY DEPARTMENT
Mr. Chester Johnson

EDUCATION DEPARTMENT
Dr. Ove Olson

A position of great responsibility is that held by Dr. Ove Olson, head of the Department of Education. Responsible for the training of America's future teachers, Dr. Olson and Mr. Oliver Haglund teach the courses, administer the practice-teaching program, and supervise placements. The high standards maintained by this department through the years have enabled many Gustavus alumni to receive key positions in the teaching field.

Nine courses are offered by Mr. Chester Johnson of the Geology Department in an effort to lead students into a study of the earth and its history.

English, a compulsory course for two years and a favorite teaching major, is taught by one of the largest staffs on the campus. Dr. E. E. Ericson heads this department and is assisted by Dr. Gerhard Alexis, Mr. George Anderson, Mr. J. Luke Creel, Mr. James Douglas, Mrs. Florence Fredricksen, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Fryxell and Mr. John Lindemann.

ENGLISH DEPARTMENT
Dr. Eston E. Ericson

Miss Gertrude Walker and Miss Alice P. Lynam, instructors in Home Economics, teach the courses which are planned to meet the needs of students desiring professional training as well as those wishing help in solving personal, family and home living problems.

HOME ECONOMICS DEPARTMENT
Miss Gertrude Walker

HISTORY DEPARTMENT
Mr. Doniver Lund

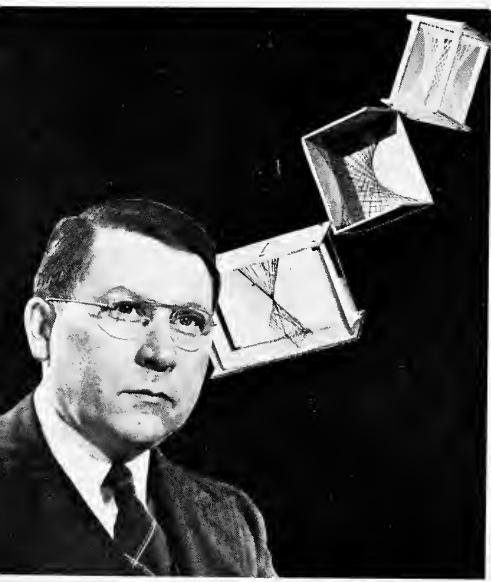

"He who knows little of the past, knows less of the present, and still less of the future." The History staff, which includes Mr. Doniver Lund, major adviser, Dr. Conrad Peterson, and Mrs. Margaret Ermath, are the leaders in combating historical ignorance to make alert citizens of the future.

LANGUAGE DEPARTMENT
Mr. Nels Langsjoen

MUSIC DEPARTMENT
Dr. Daryl Gibson

MATHEMATICS DEPARTMENT
Dr. Albert Swanson

The Foreign Language Department, under the direction of Mr. Nels Langsjoen, meets the language needs of all students who seek the two years of language required for the B.A. degree, or majors for teaching and other fields. The following instructors are listed with their individual departments: Mrs. Florence Fredricksen, French; Mr. Marvin Larson, German; Dr. Theodore Conrad, Greek and Latin; Mr. Nels Langsjoen, Spanish; and Dr. Conrad Peterson, Swedish.

Recently accepted as an Associate Member of the National Association of Schools of Music, the Gustavus Music Department trains music teachers and gives individual lessons to interested music students. Dr. Daryl Gibson is the major adviser, and is assisted by Mr. Frederic Hilary, Mr. Arthur Cavarra, Mr. Earl Erickson, Mr. Paul Karvonen, Mrs. Ruth Johnson McLaughlin, Mrs. Burton Larson and Mrs. H. R. Strom. Mr. Wilbur Swanson resigned in mid-year to enter a business firm.

The requirement of mathematics as a supplementary course for the physical sciences, as well as the interest in pure mathematics, makes the Department of Mathematics, under the leadership of Dr. Albert Swanson, an ever-popular department. Mr. Milton Anderson, Mr. Charles Dahlgren and Mr. Karlis Kaufmanis also teach in the department.

The courses in the Physics Department are designed to meet the needs of students who are interested in physics just as part of their liberal arts education, those who are preparing for teaching, those who are preparing for professional fields and those who wish to pursue graduate work in physics. Dr. Milward Rodine and Mr. C. Burton Gustafson are the instructors in this department.

Delving into the realm of speculative thought in a quest for an understanding of logic, ethics, and philosophical systems is the task of the philosophy student as he is guided by Dr. Oscar Winfield, Dr. George Forell, Mr. Evan Anderson and Dr. Gerhard Alexis.

Any student interested in the field of psychology has ample opportunity to satisfy his yearning for knowledge in the variety of courses offered by the Psychology Department. Dr. Elmer Siebrecht is the major adviser, while Mr. Oliver Hagglund, Mr. Wendell Swenson and Mr. Richard Schmidt serve as instructors.

PHYSICS DEPARTMENT

Dr. Milward Rodine

PHILOSOPHY DEPARTMENT

Dr. Oscar Winfield

SOCIOLOGY DEPARTMENT
Mr. Floyd Martinson

In an effort to interest students in the field of sociology and the opportunities for service in social work, Mr. Floyd Martinson, Mr. Paul Stean, Dr. Mary Alice Ericson and Dr. Burton Grimes present a varied array of courses in the Department of Sociology and Social Work.

Helping students overcome stage fright, as well as developing masters of the stage and platform is the mission of the Gustavus Speech Department. Mr. Evan Anderson is the major adviser, while Mrs. Anderson is in charge of dramatics and Mr. Roswell Otto of radio speech.

SPEECH DEPARTMENT
Mr. Evan Anderson

The conversation may be on a more profound level, but the spirit of fellowship and relaxation over a cup of canteen coffee is the same as that shared by their students.

CLASSES

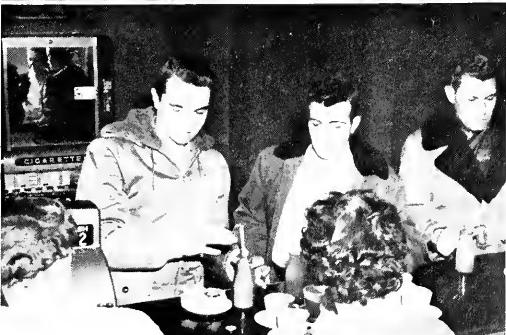

STUDENT LIFE

LEFT: A familiar scene on the Gustavus campus every morning at 9:40—Freshmen scurrying to first Chapel after a hasty glance at their P. O. boxes, while upper-classmen prepare more leisurely for the second period with a cup of Canteen coffee.

ABOVE: A tense moment in the St. Olaf Homecoming game brings loyal rooters to their feet. Gustavus 20—St. Olaf 0.

ABOVE RIGHT: When it is time to study, the luxurious new library is the favorite spot on campus.

BELLOW RIGHT: The Canteen—where a cup of coffee and the blaring music from the juke-box set the proper atmosphere for settling the world's problems or getting tonight's date.

Dewey Carlson and Dave Peterson.

Salesmen, Dr. George Hall and Dewey Carlson, use a new selling approach on Hans Mueller, newly arrived freshman from Germany, who thinks the beanie is part of the Marshall Plan.

LEFT: Many of the service activities on the campus are channeled through the Lutheran Students Association. Pictured here, Lowell Helstedt, LSA'er, delivers a sermon to patients at the St. Peter State Hospital. Altar and pulpit shown on the picture were constructed by Gustavus students under the supervision of Mr. Don Gregory.

RIGHT: Fraternities and sororities provide many of the social activities on and off campus. "Assuming the position," this frat pledge undergoes the annual initiation ceremony, a requisite for membership.

ALPHA PHI OMEGA

ABOVE: Spearheading many of the campus activities is the Alpha Phi Omega, national service fraternity. One among several contributions was their spring campaign to beautify the college grounds. Saturday evening movies and assistance with the county Red Cross blood donations program are more recent evidences of their service. Left to right: Adrian Wenner, Wayne Farnberg and Blaine Farnberg.

Left to right—First Row: Donn Escher, Darrell Wahlstrom, Wayne Farnberg, Lloyd Shervheim, Lee Doering and Kenneth J. Nelson. Second Row: Jim Peterson, Myron Shervheim, Blaine Farnberg, Dave Larson, Russ Paulson, Richard Jobes, Gordon Clarke and Al Barberg. Third Row: George Sjodin, Carl Nelson, Ken Tidstrom, Jim Whitney, Dan Hanson, Adrian Wenner, Dick Hovenen, Ted Wolf and Spencer Lundquist. Fourth Row: Pete Lokkesmoe, Fred Tidstrom, Don Johnston, Ralph Belin, Richard Brubacher, Richard Johnson, Mr. Lavine, Charles Anderson, Joel Hoff, Dallas Young and Mr. C. Burton Gustafson.

GOVERNING BOARDS

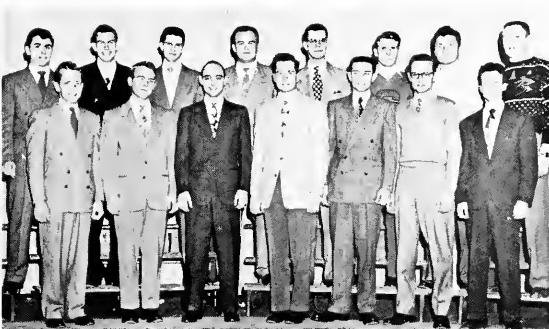

A busy schedule for settling student problems and coordinating student activities constantly faces these governing boards.

LSA

The Gustavus Chapter of the Lutheran Students Association of America carries on a wide range of activities which last fall included the collecting, packing and shipping of clothing to Bedekesa College in Germany.

LSA's chief aim is to minister to the spiritual life of all students by means of programs, worship services, Bible studies, discussion groups and the celebration of the Holy Sacrament. It also sponsors a varied program of social and recreational activities.

SPAN

Six Gustavus students and one professor participated in the Minnesota colleges' Student Project for Amity Among Nations (SPAN) last summer. Their purpose was based on a statement from the UNESCO Charter, ". . . that since wars begin in the minds, it is in the minds of men that the defenses of peace must be constructed." Gustavians, who helped bring about mutual understanding among the peoples of the world, were Al Kroehler and Annette Harrison in Austria; Art Monke and Doris Jacobson in France; Dallas Young and Lloyd Bergman in Sweden, and Dr. George Forell, adviser, Austria.

ACTIVITIES

LEFT: Campus social functions provide the necessary relaxation and enjoyment for a liberal college education. Typical ushertettes, pictured here, collect tickets and distribute programs at a campus dramatic production.

RIGHT: Two intramural participants take the "pause that refreshes" after an intramural basketball game. The intramural program is designed to provide campus-wide recreation and maintain a physical fitness program.

BELOW RIGHT: That famous Gustavus spirit surges forth at a late season football engagement with St. Olaf on the Oles' field.

BELOW LEFT: The "Gustavian Weekly," official student publication, is a welcome visitor every Friday, and contains news and columns of interest to all students and friends of Gustavus. The "Gustavian" annual and "Prospects," annual literary magazine, afford ample opportunity for industrious students to display their journalistic qualities.

Anderson.

RIGHT: Coach Gus Young calls in his varsity quintet during an exciting moment of the Hamline game. Called the "best dressed" coach in the conference, Coach Young has developed a team that will be a future threat in all conference games next year.

BASEBALL

The Gustavus baseball squad completed its 1949 season with eight wins and eleven losses, and a Conference record of five wins and six losses. Leading hitter for the local squad was Jerry Miller, with a .355 average throughout the entire season. He also led in the runs-batted-in division with a total of eighteen for the season. Russ Gustafson maintained the pitching honors throughout the baseball season with four Conference wins and three losses. He had 41 strikeouts in seven games, and allowed only four hits in the fray with St. Mary's.

TRACK

In four dual meets the Gustavus 1949 track squad suffered as many defeats, but placed three men in the State Track Meet. Haldo Norman was second in the discus throw, while Jack Nelson in the high jump and Don Jacobson in the pole vault tied for fifth place in their events. At the Viking Olympics sponsored by Augustana College of Rock Island, Illinois, the Gusties garnered 41½ points, with Haldo Norman placing first in the discus and second in the javelin; Chuck Stevens copped two firsts in the 120-yard high hurdles and the 220-yard low hurdles, having just recently recovered from a leg injury which prevented any other track participation during the season.

Track letter winners were Jack Thommen, Keith Dickie, Clint Perkins, Don Jacobson, Haldo Norman, Jack Nelson and Chuck Stevens.

TENNIS

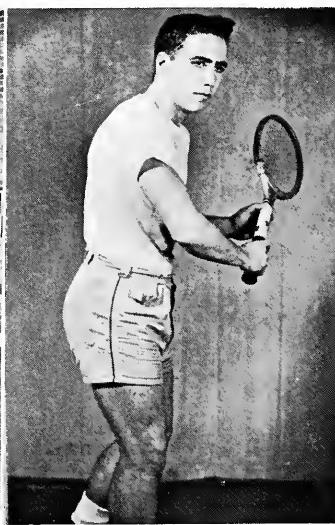

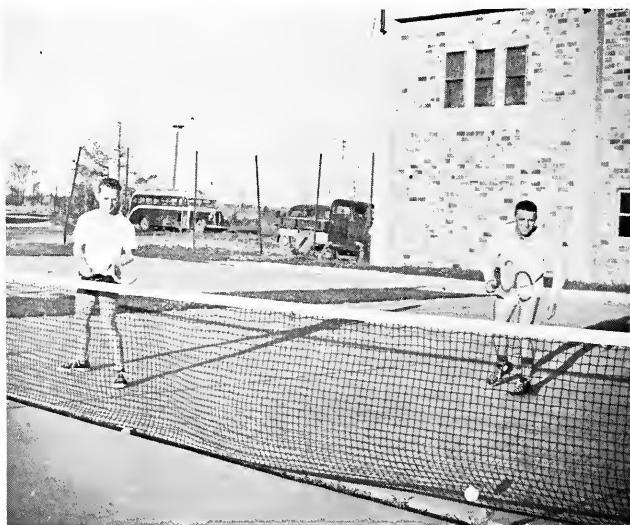

The Gustavus tennis team finished its 1949 season with a lone victory over St. John's and a State Tournament Singles Championship. Backed by four letter winners, Jack Thommen, Rodger Johnson, Dick Chambers and Ken Kamholz, the squad dropped several close ones during the season which included six losses. The highlight of the season was the annexing of the State Singles crown by player-coach Jack Thommen. In a match that lasted three and a quarter hours, Thommen finally downed the Conference Champ of 1947-48, Bucky Olson, of St. Thomas 5-7, 7-5, 6-2.

Getting early practice sessions for the 1950 season are returning lettermen Dick Chambers, Ken Kamholz and Rodger Johnson.

GOLF

Five lettermen—Bruce Christensen, Don Johnson, Jack Otness, Chuck Carlson and Coach Bobby Krig—with the help of Art Adamson, Ray Larson and Slug Wenner gained a season record of two wins, two ties and five losses, and a second place title behind St. Thomas in the state meet.

Outstanding event of the 1949 season was the annexing of the MIAC golf championship by Bruce Christensen, Gustavus sophomore. Bruce turned in a score of 153, a one-stroke advantage over his nearest opponent, Stenvig of Augsburg. In this state meet, Gustavus placed four men among the first fourteen out of a field of 45 linksters.

On the basis of the following four points, thirteen members of the Senior Class were chosen to represent Gustavus in "Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities": (1) excellence and sincerity of scholarship, (2) leadership and participation in extracurricular and academic activities, (3) citizenships and service to the college, (4) promise of future usefulness to business and society. The book was created as a means of honoring deserving students, and as a reference book of those most likely to make a success of life. Local prospects for the honor were suggested by faculty members and the Student Senate; the Student Affairs and Achievement Committee made the final choice.

LITTLE THEATRE

"Antigone" was the first play of the 1949-50 dramatic season, under the direction of Mrs. Evan Anderson. A Greek tragedy, the play was presented November 7, 8, 9, and featured Joyce Westin, freshman, as Antigone.

RIGHT: Climaxing the Spiritual Emphasis Week was a banquet held in the college cafeteria. Pastor Mattson spoke on the subject "The Fellowship of Following." Principals at the speakers' table, from left to right, are Dallas Young, toastmaster; Pastor Mattson, speaker; Dave Larson, general chairman, and Roger Shiek, who read devotions.

FROSH WEEK

ABOVE: More humiliating than punishments endured by her masculine classmates is this fingernail clipping ceremony carried out by Alice Milton, jury member, on another offender during Freshman Week.

LEFT: Bud Finn puts the finishing touches on Jiggs Westergaard's Dodge and completes his sentence pronounced by the Senior Jury.

CHRISTMAS PARTY

LEFT: After an evening of entertainment and caroling at the all-school party, hungry Gustavians devour a delicious lunch served by the Svea Society before attending the midnight Christmas service in the Fieldhouse.

ABOVE: Mr. Richard Laube demonstrates the form that won the broom hockey game between the faculty and the students during the winter week-end.

BELOW LEFT: Touching off the week-end's activities was the Friday evening pepper pot, which was highlighted by a mock marriage ceremony between Georgia Anonsen and Robert Wytenhove.

BELOW RIGHT: "Here comes the bride, big, fat and wide." How true!

FROST WEEKEND

ABOVE RIGHT: Junior Class Carnival "Cops" make two more arrests of violators during the evening, and swell their treasury to the tune of 10 cents.

BETWEEN: Famous for its homemade fudge, the Theta sorority made its booth a favorite spot for all Gustavians with a sweet tooth.

LYCEUM

Outstanding lyceum program of the year was the appearance of the Minneapolis Symphony Orchestra, under the direction of Antal Dorati, December 11. In addition to Gustavus students and faculty, over 1500 students from thirty nearby high schools attended this first concert by the 90-member orchestra on the Gustavus campus.

ABOVE: The complete orchestra as it appeared in the Gustavus concert, with Director Dorati, poses for this impressive picture.

LEFT: Antal Dorati, world-famous musician, began his first season with the Minneapolis Symphony Orchestra in 1949. Starting his career as a conductor of the Royal Opera House in Budapest at 18, he has won great acclaim for his orchestral arrangements and compositions.

LEFT: Odgen Nash, poet, humorist and social critic, spoke in the college auditorium February 6. Pictured delivering his address, Mr. Nash recited some of his pointless particles of poetic patter and told of incidents in his life which inspired the verses.

BELLOW LEFT: Mr. Nash receives the congratulations of Dr. Gerhard Alexie after the convocation.

BELLOW: Observer at the Bikini atom bomb experiments and author of the book "No Place to Hide," Dr. David Bradley lectured March 14 on the question of the atomic bomb in relation to world peace. His lecture, as well as his book, was called by critics "authoritative and quietly terrifying."

LSA REGIONAL CONFERENCE

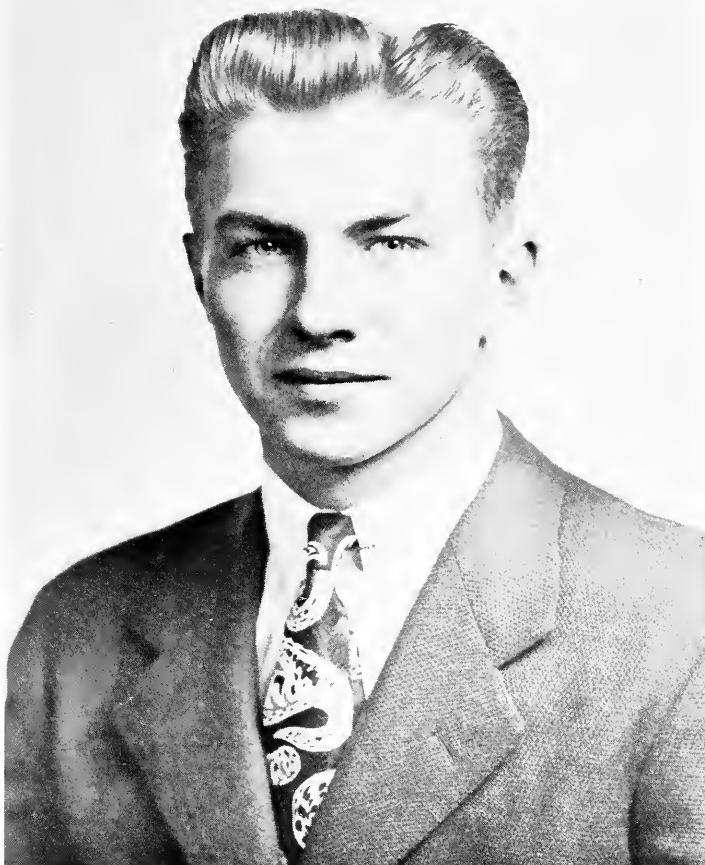

Gustavus LSA was host November 4, 5, 6, 1949, to the annual fall conference of the Land O' Lakes Region LSA. Over 100 students from 25 Minnesota, Wisconsin and northern Michigan colleges convened under the theme "That Men May Know Christ."

ABOVE: Left to right—Laverne McCullough, former Regional president, assisted by Twylah Lundquist and Delpho Peterson, registers a group of delegates.

BELOW: The Reverend Arnold Carlson and Dr. Theodore Conrad of the Gustavus faculty officiate at a 6:30 a. m. Sunday Communion Service.

ERLING ENQUIST

1928—1950

Erling Engquist, 21, one of Gustavus' most well-known and loved students, died January 15, 1950, after a short illness diagnosed as leukemia.

That his winsome personality and infectious smile had won him many friends was evidenced by the large attendance at his funeral, held in Salem Lutheran Church of Minneapolis. Excellent tributes were paid in letters received from Dr. Edgar M. Carlson and the various organizations of Gustavus. His pastor, the Rev. Reuben Anderson, rejoiced in Erling's Christian testimony and activity in the Church.

Erling entered Gustavus in the fall of 1946 as a Freshman, and in his first two years of college earned letters in football and hockey. The Eppies claimed him as an active and loyal frat brother, while he found additional interests in the activities of the G-club. After spending a year at the University of Minnesota, he returned to complete his college career at Gustavus. This time he devoted many hours of faithful service as a cheerleader and a member of the Student Senate. His academic interests were centered in Biology and English.

The thoughts of many Gustavians, who will remember Erling for years to come, agree with the sentiment expressed in Dr. Carlson's letter to his parents: "I am grateful for these little glimpses into a life which, although filled with possibilities, still seemed to be so complete even now."

Gustavian

ST. PETER, MINNESOTA
March 16, 1950

Dear Reader,

With the writing of this letter we wind up a year of blood, sweat and tears. It was an interesting experience not always bright; one that we may not soon realize the value of, but, also one from which we have discovered the necessity of cooperation. Faculty and students alike have given generously of their time to help out in all phases of the work. To all of you we wish to express our sincerest appreciation.

A special note of thanks has been earned by Mr. Aldrich Bloomquist of the Mankato Free Press, and Mr. Irv Weiseth of Kayenay Engraving Company. These two craftsmen knew no limits in contributing time and effort towards ironing out the inevitable rough spots that come about through inexperience.

To the following members of our staff, who contributed dear hours to often unpleasant tasks that seemingly went unappreciated, we extend our heartfelt thanks: Meriel Adland, JoAnne Akerson, Jean Anderson, Peggy Berry, Marilyn Dahl, Donna Even, Jeanne Hanson, Faith Kruger, Barbara Lundberg, Shirley Magnuson, Bill Ohm, Margarite Olson, Lois Oleson, Betty Pearson, Muriel Reed and Virgil Westlund.

A large part of the work connected with producing an annual falls on the shoulders of the photographers. This year three students (Ted Torkelson, Don Johnson and Jim Whitney) served in this capacity and they were most cooperative. Jim Stocke served as our photographic adviser and lent his talents to producing the department heads section. Last but not least, the artists, Dale Chellberg and Tug Ikeda, deserve a most hearty pat on the back for the beautiful art and lettering they produced.

Sincerely yours,
The Editors
